Library as Instructional Leader: Transforming Pedagogy and Curriculum with Information Literacy

Focus on:
- Discipline faculty
- Emerging pedagogies
- Special populations students

Project Coordinator
Lynn Kanne – Librarian, Seattle Central

Fiscal Agent and Project Manager
Wai-Fong Lee – Library Dean, Seattle Central

Steering Committee
Wai-Fong Lee, Myra Van Vactor, Deb Gilchrist, Katy Dichter

http://informationliteracywactc.pbwiki.com/
Precollege Information Literacy Research (PILR)

- IL assessment projects that use a shared rubric for pre-college IL instruction
- 44 faculty & Librarians from 17 colleges
- Rubric design & norming
- Student level assessment data collection
- Qualitative data from each team
- ATL Workshop
Mini Grants

- Authentic Assessment
- Rising Juniors
- Pre-College
- The IL Plan

Information Literacy Grant
Lower Columbia College, Spring 2009
Summer & Fall Workshops

- Pre-college
- Leveraging technology
- Integrative learning
- Rising junior

Outcome: Students will be able to use a variety of information resources for career research.

Topic: Career choice and family/social life.

Assignment: Compare and contrast 2 occupation choices in terms of impact on family/social life.
A Dip into Immersion

A few words from a faculty member at our Immersion
Other Activities

- Copyright Tutorial (based on IRIS format)
- Rising Junior rubric
- Accreditation Toolkit
  librarytoolkit.wordpress.com/
Current Activities

• PILR Wrap Up – Final teams in process; Elluminate session May 30; summer report writing

• Mini-Grants – in process; finish by June 22

• Library Self-Reflection $300 for each library for:
  – Completed self-eval
  – “Highlights” submissions

• LSTA Articles – 5 “publication quality” articles
  – Quill West, formerly WWCC, Andrea Steinhilper, LCC, Emily Wood, PCC, Shireen Deboo, SSCC, Elinor Appel, NSCC

• Knowledge Management feasibility (Frank Brasile/Pierce)
Looking Ahead

- LSTA Highlights
- Themes & Interests
- New steering committee
  - Michelle Bagley (Clark)
  - Jane Blume (BTC)
  - Wai-Fong Lee
  - Librarian??
  - Lynn Kanne